(NOTE 1) Depending on the class size and the capacity of the facility, we may not be able to accommodate all students who wish to register for the course

Course Description	Cap (registrant capacity): 20 students This course aims at completing the elementary level of Japanese and acquiring more accurate and creative use of the language based on what they learnt previously, as well as improving their communication skills, through oral/written practice and activities. Students will learn more complex grammatical structures such as passive, causative, causative-passive, and basic honorific expressions, which helps students' smooth transition to a lower intermediate level. They will also learn and deepen their understanding of some aspects of Japanese culture simultaneously and make a presentation on their findings of the project which is conducted in group work format. Approximately 80% of class instruction and interaction will be conducted in Japanese with occasional English explanations when necessary.
Class plan based on course evaluation from previous academic year	Based on feedback from students in previous semesters, classes will be conducted in a flipped mode. Students are expected to preview vocabulary and grammar before the session so that they can concentrate on the actual use and practice during the session.
Course related to the instructor's practical experience (Summary of experience)	N/A
Learning Goals	At the end of this course, proficient students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognize and use vocabulary and grammar patterns required for the upper elementary level. • Adjust level of politeness in vocabulary/expressions/sentence ending, and use honorific expressions according to whom they are talking to, situations, and message. • Improve fluency/appropriateness and use strategies when communicating in Japanese. • Deepen their understanding of Japanese culture. • Understand norms in Japanese society.

Active Learning Methods	Flipped Classroom/Discussion, Debate/Group Work/Presentation
More details/supplemental information on Active Learning Methods	The classes are conducted in a flipped mode. Students are expected to read and understand the grammar by reading the Grammar Notes in the textbook, and to take "before the class" quizzes on UNIPA to check the understanding prior to the class. A small scale discussion (in both Japanese and English) and group work will be included in class activities. Students are expected to discover rules and their backgrounds from those activities. At the end of the semester students will make a presentation on what they find in the project. Students are encouraged to make a presentation in Japanese.
Use of ICT	Students are expected to complete simple grammar quizzes on UNIPA in order to make themselves ready for the class activities. During the class, PPT slides, video, audio will be extensively used. Google form/Google documents will be used to enhance group works in class. Students are expected to type Japanese characters (hiragana, katakana, kanji) properly on their computers. For the second submissions of compositions, students are allowed to use AI translations for a checking purpose (i.e. to compare what they have written and AI translations).
Contents of class preparation and review	Students are expected to complete simple grammar quizzes on UNIPA in order to make themselves ready for the class activities. Students also need to work on vocabulary of the lesson prior to class. After the class daily workbook exercises allows students to check in the writing format what they learned and practiced orally in class. It is also required to memorize kanji and kanji compounds to extend vocabulary after the class (approximately 16-18 kanji are introduced per lesson). Composition exercises give students opportunity to explore free writing using the knowledge they have acquired, and to experience rewriting and polishing what is written.	Hours expected to be spent preparing for class (hours per week)	2 hours	Hours expected to be spent on class review (hours per week)	3 hours
Feedback Methods	Daily workbook/task feedback will be done individually through class homework box in front of the instructor's room/emails/LMS. Lesson tests/oral tests feedback will be done individually through emails/LMS, or individual consultation (face-to-face or zoom).

Plagiarism Policy	The instructor of this class takes the issue of academic honesty very seriously. All students' homework/assessments should be his/her own work alone. No outside help whatsoever is permitted beyond those specified by the instructor. If a student is unsure whether something constitutes a breach or not, it is his/her responsibility to consult with the instructor before submitting the assessment. All breaches of the policy, regardless of the circumstances, will be addressed according to university policies. Please make sure to familiarize yourself with academic honesty policies in ICLA students' guidebook before the first assessment. The use of artificial intelligence (AI) tools without proper attribution can be considered a form of plagiarism. Students must provide a description of usage of chatbots or any generative AI tools, what they did, and the date accessed. Inappropriate usage of chatbots or other generative AI tools will be considered academic misconduct.
Other Additional Notes (Outline crucial policies and info not mentioned above)	Students are required to submit all prescribed work and to maintain at least 60% performance in each type of assessment (final exam, lesson tests, kanji quiz, grammar quiz, UNIPA quiz, compositions, workbook submission, project). Students who cannot maintain more than 60% performance in any of those assessment items are not eligible to take the final exam and will not receive credits for this course. No make-up quizzes/tests will be given unless a legitimate/official reason is provided. In case a make-up quiz/test is given, please understand some points will be deducted from the score. This course requires students' active participation in every class (e.g. active participation in discussion, speaking in Japanese in class). Please note that missing 1/3 of class meetings (15 out of 45) disqualifies you from taking the final examination and receiving credits for this course. If a student is not in the classroom when the class starts, or leave midway/leave early for more than 5 minutes, it will be counted as one "late." Three instances of "late" will be counted as one "absence." If the student is 30 minutes (or longer) late, or leave midway/early for more than 30 minutes, s/he will be marked as "absent." Medical absences can be excused only with the relevant document. Please refer to ICLA Students' Handbook for the attendance rule.
