Course Description	The main target of this course is students who are planning to take the N2 level of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) that takes place every July and December in Japan. Based on what students learned in previous courses, they will tackle many N2 questions of 'vocabulary', 'grammar', 'reading', and 'listening' in and outside classes. They will also obtain comprehensive knowledge that is necessary to pass the JLPT by self- and peer-assessments and by subsequent explanations. Mock tests and explanations of these tests will be carried out in order to improve the students' practical test techniques. Kanji and vocabulary section will be conducted in a flipped mode and students are required to study kanji and vocabulary on their own prior to class. This course is for students who have completed Japanese 5 (JPNL 115) / Intermediate Japanese (JPNL 210) at iCLA or the equivalent level elsewhere.
Class plan based on course evaluation from previous academic year	Based on the previous students' requests, this course finishes all contents before the JLPT except for the achievement test. In order to finish the course before the JLPT, students need to attend classes which will be set outside normal class hours before week 13.
Course related to the instructor's practical experience (Summary of experience)	NA
Learning Goals	At the end of this course, proficient students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- deepen their understanding of vocabulary, kanji and grammar at N2 level,</li> <li>- acquire listening and reading skills necessary for N2 level, and</li> <li>- acquire test taking strategies by getting used to N2 level questions and N2 test format.</li> </ul>
