Dear Graduates of Yamanashi Gakuin University,

It is my great honour to extend my warmest congratulations to each of you on this remarkable achievement. Your dedication and hard work have led you to this proud moment, and today, we celebrate not only your academic success but also the bright future that lies ahead.

To those who had the opportunity to visit Oman last summer, I hope the experiences and connections you made will remain with you as you embark on your next journey.

Wishing you all success, fulfilment, and meaningful contributions to the world.

Warm regards,
