Dear New Students of Yamanashi Gakuin University,

It is a distinct honour to congratulate you as you begin this important and inspiring stage of your academic life. Entering university marks the start of a journey filled with learning, personal growth, and new possibilities that will help shape your future path.

As you take your first steps on campus, I encourage you to approach your studies and experiences with enthusiasm, openness, and perseverance. University life offers not only academic knowledge but also opportunities to broaden your horizons, form lasting friendships, and develop the skills needed to contribute meaningfully to society.

May your years ahead be rewarding, enriching, and full of achievement.

Warm regards,

Dr. Mohamed Al Busaidi

Ambassador of the Sultanate of Oman
